Article 2 - General and specific objectives of the project proposal

The Traiettorie project was set up to facilitate the legal entry of foreign citizens interested in living and working in Italy and to create the conditions for adequate job placement, which is the basis for a path to economic independence and social inclusion.

The beneficiaries of Traiettorie are 350 foreign citizens from Albania, Ivory Coast, Gambia and Senegal who, after adequate preparation in their home countries, will be able to be placed on international traineeships, to be employed as seasonal workers and as employees.

The main aims of the project are:

- Developing skills needed for socio-occupational integration in Italy, such as the Italian language, civics, safety at work, Italian immigration law, specific professional skills;
- Promoting the circulation of correct and useful information on immigration among foreign nationals and host companies;
- Accompanying foreign citizens in the completion of the bureaucratic procedures necessary for legal entry into Italy;
- Supporting foreign citizens who intend to start-up businesses in Italy.

The foreseen preparatory training activities will be divided as follows:

- Italian language courses - 60 hours
- Civics courses - 20 hours
- Courses on labour contracts - 4 hours
